

STRUTHOF

European centre
on resistance
and deportation

In 1943, the camp deportees were forced to build the kartoffelkeller*.
*potato cellar

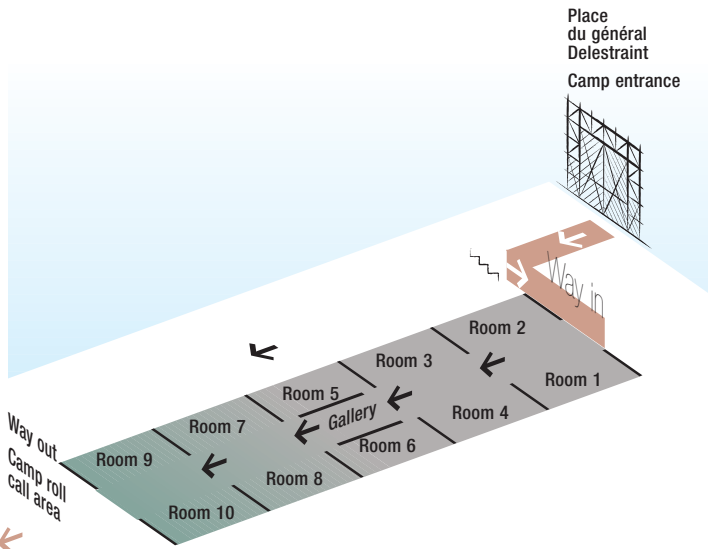

The European centre on resistance and deportation now stands above this cement building.

STRUTHOF

Museum

A replica of one of the camp's original barracks, destroyed by arson in 1976, now houses a museum dedicated to the history of KL-Natzweiler.

- Room 1 From Struthof to KL-Natzweiler film
- Room 2 Creation of the KL-Natzweiler at Struthof
- Room 3 The camp organisation
- Room 4 The deportees of KL-Natzweiler
- Gallery Gayot gallery
- Room 5 Everyday life of the deportees
- Room 6 Brutality, diseases and death
- Room 7 Reconstruction of the inside of a barrack
- Room 8 The subcamps of KL-Natzweiler 1942-1945
- Room 9 Nazi medicine and experiments at KL-Natzweiler, 1941-1944
- Room 10 The camp evacuation, the trials and the memory

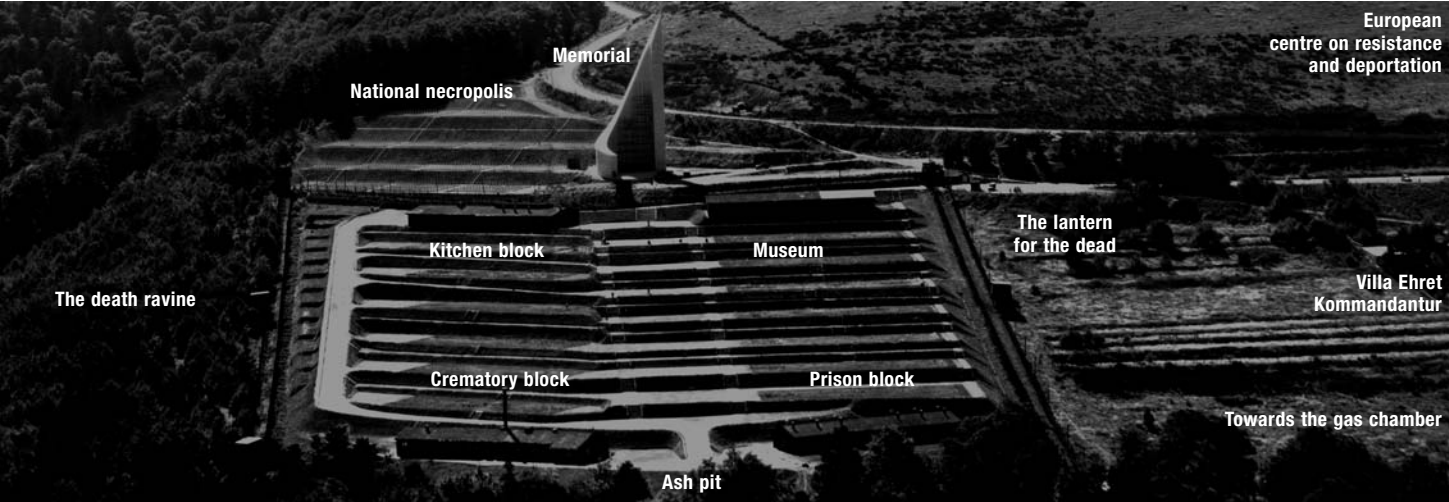

STRUTHOF

Visitor's guide

STRUTHOF

Focus point for National Remembrance

For over 50 years, the minister for war veterans, with the council of an advisory committee composed of ex-deportees, resistance fighters and prisoners, has been in charge of the care and conservation of the camp, and the honouring of its victims. In 1954, the barracks falling into ruin were destroyed, and 4 others conserved. The memorial to the "Martyrs and heroes of deportation", as well as the national necropolis, was inaugurated on 23rd July 1960 by the President of the French Republic, General Charles de Gaulle.

STRUTHOF

Natzweiler
camp

On 1st May 1941, the Nazis opened the KL-Natzweiler concentration camp in a place called Struthof. Nearly 52,000 people from all over Europe were deported to this camp or to one of its annexes. 22,000 of them never returned. The 23rd November 1944, Allied Forces discovered the site, abandoned by the Nazis in September 1944.

www.struthof.fr
www.cheminsdememoire.gouv.fr

opening hours singles

March-April
Daily from 10am to 5pm

May-15th September
Daily from 9am to 6pm

16th September-24th December
Daily from 10am to 5pm

Ticket office closes
1 hour before

Annual closing
Christmas to February included

Adults over 18 5 €

Unders 18s 2,50 €

Students 2,50 €

Cezam cardholders 2,50 €

Unemployed, Welfare beneficiaries
2,50 €

War veterans, ex-deportees and war invalids free

Access to the camp only is free.
Enquire at the welcome desk of the European centre.

groups

Group rates for 10 or more

Entrance 2,50€

School groups

Entrance fee 1€/ student

Accompanying adult free

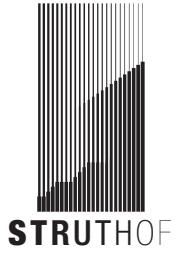

Worksheets 1€/ student

Educational workshops
flat fee 10€/ class

Workrooms available on reservation

Reservation required for all groups

Tél + 33 (0)3 88 47 44 57
Fax + 33 (0)3 88 97 16 83
Email resa.struthof@wanadoo.fr

French Ministry of Defence SGA/DMPA No reproduction allowed, 2005 Do not litter ABCOm

European centre on resistance and deportation
Site de l'ancien camp de Natzweiler
DIACVG Alsace
Route départementale 130
67130 NATZWILLER

Tél + 33 (0)3 88 47 44 67
Email struthof@wanadoo.fr

Partial access for the disabled.
Proper attire required.
Children under 10 must be accompanied and placed under the supervision of an adult.
Management reserves the right to refuse entry to any individual who does not respect the site and the memory of its victims.
No animals allowed on premises.